- color: Blue (anytime)
- number: 9 (its my birthdate)
- animal: I dont have a favorite animal, but I love birds.
- food: Sweet potatoes with Sour milk :)
- smell: I love the smell of every delicious food :)
- word: Love (You may not agree, but it make the world go round)
- place: Kibera, Nairobi, Kenya (East or west home is best)

What are the three most important values for you?

Respect, Sincerity, Honesty

The best day in your life:

This was the day I first learnt how to ride my neighbours bycycle :) (True story).

The worst day in your life:

The day my MOTHER DIED (The worst Ever)

What would you change in you life?

I pretty much love my life the way it is, but with some little ~~more~~ extra money, I might change my wardrobe :).

What would you change in contemporary world?

I would change the way Christianity/Religion has been turned into a multi billion dollar business and take it back to its true meaning and purpose of existance.
I would also unite the world so that there are no borders.

Your biggest fear is...

Failing to achieve my goals.

Where do you see yourself in ten years?

Wow :). I see myself still serving the community but with more resources and better outcomes

What's your talent?

I can act, sing, write plays, direct plays, play soccer, I recite poems
I write poems, oral narratives, spoken word.

What's your definition of happiness?

Kindness, Peace, love....

Which part of the day is your favourite? (Why?)

The afternoon. (its when I was born :))

What is your best childhood memory?

Becoming number one in exams at school :). (yes I am that smart)

What is your worst childhood memory?

My mothers death

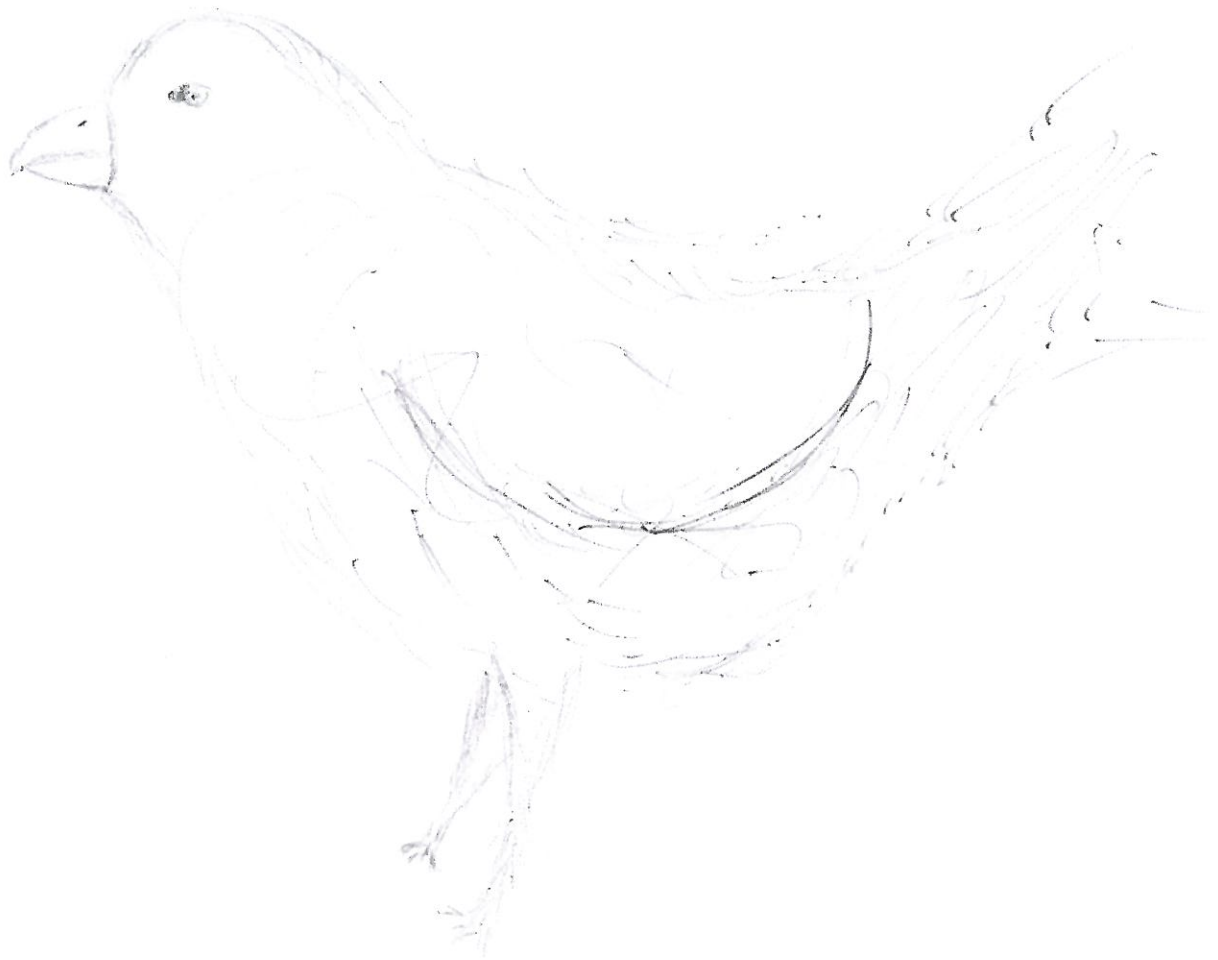

What would you like to achieve in your life?

I would like to inspire peaceful co-existence amongst my communities in Kenya.

How important are stories for you (and why)?

Stories are very important to me because I use them as learning points, entertainment, and as inspiration.
